

Companion Animal Food Company Statement of Assurance

We, the undersigned, hereby pledge to PETA and its membership that our company does not conduct, contract out, or fund any studies on animals in the development, manufacturing, testing, or marketing of our products. We understand that from this time forward, we are obliged to inform PETA immediately in the event that the aforementioned statement should cease to be accurate.

Signed by _____

Printed name and title _____

Name of company _____

Date _____

Address _____

Web address _____

Contact's e-mail address _____

Tel. (include toll-free if available) _____

Companion Animal Food Company Statement Regarding Palatability Studies

We, the undersigned, wish to assure PETA and its members and supporters that our company conducts only palatability studies as follows:

_____ in-house studies using animals owned by the company and housed on company property _____ studies using animals owned by a contract laboratory and housed at the contract facility _____ studies conducted in the homes of companion animals whose guardians have agreed to let their dogs or cats participate in palatability tests

We understand that any changes to this information should be reported to PETA immediately.

Signed by _____

Printed name _____

Name of company _____

Date _____

Companion Animal Food Company Statement Regarding Animal Testing

We, the undersigned, use animals to test our products in the following ways:

___ disease prevention or treatment ___ metabolic energy ___ injury prevention or treatment ___ stamina or strength ___ allergy sensitivities ___ palatability

___ other (please explain):

These tests are conducted as follows:

___ in-house exclusively ___ at contract laboratories ___ both in-house and at contract laboratories ___ using epidemiological studies (please explain):

Signed by _____

Printed name _____

Name of company _____

Date _____